SICK & RETIRED CLERGY FUND They devoted their lives and their all to serving God and God's people. Whilst they 'retire' at the age of 75, they are still priests for life. Many continue in ministry leading active lives-celebrating Mass, serving as chaplains, counselling people in need, supporting parish life, and praying for us all. They've been there for us, living their vocation and bearing witness to our Catholic Faith. The least we can do is say 'Thank You' by supporting the Sick & Retired Clergy Fund through the annual collection in the parishes of the Archdiocese of Cardiff. This will take place during each Mass this weekend 16th & 17th November. Gift Aid envelopes are at the back of the Church.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE This will take place on Sunday 24th November at 10am. At this Mass we remember those who have died during the past year. When each name is called out, a family member is invited to light a candle in remembrance.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION The first two Sundays of November, registration forms will be available for those intending to make their FHC next May. I encourage those who have children in school to attend Mass, deepening your faith and help build and maintain the Community of St. Patrick's. Only those children who have been Baptized Catholic can receive Holy Communion. If they are not already baptized they will be deferred until the following year, 2021.
The last weekend for the registration will be the weekend of November 16th +17th . After that NO child will be allowed to join the FHC class and will be deferred until 2021.

FORTHCOMING WEDDINGS & BAPTISMS If you are looking to book a wedding date for 2020/2021 please would you contact Canon Mike Evans so that details can be confirmed. If you need to book a Baptism please see Canon Mike in person as it cannot be arranged over the telephone.

KENNY'S COFFEE BAR They say acorns grow into large oak trees. Thus the idea of opening up 2 garages and turning them into a place of refreshment and friendship has worked. At the end of each Sunday Mass "Ken's Coffee Bar" opens and people meet over a tea or coffee and sample home made cakes made by parishioners. The idea was not to make money but in the short time that it's been open we have made over £2,000. May I thank those generous people who not only meet to eat and drink but those who give their time in baking then serving the teas and cake. We will never be as big as 'Lyons Corner House' but this shows what can be done when people pull together for the Greater Good, Thank-You.

GOING INTO HOSPITAL? Please let your parish priest know as he will be pleased to celebrate the Sacrament of the Sick and/or any pastoral support you need, as the team of priests who currently provide 24/7 cover are under a great deal of pressure and therefore no guarantee that a priest will always be available at any particular time. If you know any Catholic already in Hospital who needs a visit or sacramental support please leave details with the Cardiff & Vale Hospital Chaplaincy 029 20743230

SICK & HOUSEBOUND Again we appeal to those people who are housebound and wish to receive Holy Communion or a visit from the SVP to inform the Priest either directly via phone or a family member or if you are attending Mass could you inform me or the SVP. Please remember in order to help you; you must help by informing us of your need for Holy Communion.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

Mercy is the heart of God. It must also be the heart of the members of the one great family of His children: a heart which beats all the more strongly wherever human dignity---as a reflection of the face of God in His creatures---is in play.

Life's Like That

The boss of a big company needed to speak urgently to one of his management team at the weekend, so he phoned him at home. The phone was answered by a small boy in hushed tones. " Hello" said the boss " Is your Daddy at home?" "Yes" whispered the child. " May I talk to him?" " No" The boss was not used to hearing his requests rejected. " Well, is your Mum there?" " Yes" whispered the boy. " May I talk with her?" "No"
The increasingly impatient boss tried again. " Is anyone else there?" " Yes, a policeman" The boss was startled to hear that the police were there. " Well, may I speak with him?" " No, he's busy" whispered the boy. " Busy doing what?" " Talking to Mummy, Daddy and the Firemen". Just then the boss heard a strange whirling sound down the phone. " What's that noise?" he asked. " A helicopter" whispered the boy. " Exactly what is going on there?" said the boss. " The search team just landed the helicopter" confided the boy. " What are they looking for" said the boss very concerned. " They're looking for me !!"

A salesman saw a young boy sitting on a porch and said " Hi, son, Is your Mum at home?" " She, sure is" replied the boy. The salesman rang the bell, but there was no reply. So he pressed again, and then for a third time. Still no reply. Finally he turned to the boy and said " I thought you said your Mum was at home?"
" She is" answered the boy. " But I don't live here."

A mother was putting her young son to bed at the height of a violent thunderstorm.
" Mummy" he asked nervously " can I sleep with you tonight?" " I'm sorry, darling" she said. " But I have to sleep with Daddy tonight." " It's not fair" said the boy. " Tell the big coward not to be such a baby".
