WEEKLY MESSAGE FROM CANON MIKE

What was your favourite Vera Lynn song? Often on the TV or the Radio they play a selection of her songs, but the one I love ? “ The Nightingale Sang in Berkley Square”. I listen to that and picture my parents and those of that generation dancing arm in arm around the ballroom. Those were the days !

My father and mother would dance in the local clubs around Neath. They say he was a good dancer. I don’t remember my father as a dancer but it is his other qualities which spring to mind. I’ve told you many times that he worked on the Buses as a Conductor and one gift he had was one of communication. Whoever came on his bus was treated with respect, drunk or sober on the “Last Stage Coach” to leave the depot on a Friday night. He worked hard for his family, living and loving within the Community of love. There were times when I failed him and showed a lack of respect, but he had an open heart, and was willing to forgive even my ‘know-it-all- attitude’. The times we would argue, and as I’ve told you before I regret those times and still carry the guilt.

“ Where ever and whatever you do, the door will always be open.... this is your home.”

These words resonate today on what we call “ Fathers’ Day” . This is how I see our relationship with God Our Father, the open heart, the loving embrace, the open door to the family home. For us our True Home is in Heaven. Please God that’s in the future, but as we are alive and a brother and sister, the Church is our home, no closed doors, no questions asked ... “Where have you been? What have you been up to ?”

“*You are my Child, I am your Father.
I love you with a Father’s love*”

I see and experience God as a loving Father based upon the relationship I had with mine.

I’ve told you of a young married wife and mother who had an abusive relationship with her father, sadly she took her own life. There are people reading this who are afraid of coming home, for in their eyes they will receive a clip around the ear from a resentful and bitter God. NO! NO! NO! Please don’t think that way. God knows and loves you as you are, warts and all !

“ *Come back to me with all your heart.
For I am full of tenderness and compassion*”

So on this Fathers’ Day let us celebrate this day with thankfulness. Let us, as Children of the Father, recognise that all peoples, black, white and brown are precious. Life is precious, from the Cradle to the Grave. So the words of Vera Lyn ring in my ears.... “ Maldwyn, we’ll meet again, I know where, But I don’t know when.”

This Archdiocese and in particular Cardiff and Newport must say a big “ Thank You” to the Rosminians who when they first arrived in St Mary’s Newport in the 1850’s were Italian Priests ministering to Irish immigrants. They founded our Parish of St Patrick’s along with most of the old City Parishes. The Original Priests who arrived brought with them many of the traditions of their country. The Church within Britain was very different to that in Italy at that time. The style of dress was different. The clergy here would dress like the people of the area and were addressed as Mister. When the Italian Priests arrived they were called Padre, then it became Father. They introduced many other Roman traditions, which a great number of our clergy wish to project today. Nostalgia for the past !

So pray for the priests who serve the people of God, and those currently in the seminaries that they may show they are true Fathers to their Parishioners. May they be loving caring and understanding. It’s a big responsibility being a Father. May I and all other Priests live up to our calling as Fathers.

PRAYER FOR FATHERS

Heavenly Father,

We thank You for the gift of fathers. Bless all dads with wisdom, patience, and unconditional love. Strengthen them in their daily work and guide them as they lead their families. For those who have gone before us, grant them eternal rest. For fathers who are struggling, bring comfort and peace. May all fathers mirror Your love, faithfulness, and compassion. Amen.
