Please pray for the repose of the soul of Pricilla Nogan who passed away recently. May she rest in peace.

Do not forget to pray for all those who have died and for their families particularly those who have no-one to remember them.

MESSAGE FROM CANON MIKE

Well, my friends, hopefully many of us have had our ‘Booster’ to protect us from Covid 19. Thank God for the Scientists throughout the world who continue to work night and day trying to find the ultimate cure, but let’s not forget we must still follow the precautions we’ve been following. We are not out of the woods yet !

How lucky we are to live here and how thankful we should be for those who care for our sick and administer the drugs available to us. I worry for those in the developing countries who have little hope of this vaccine reaching their towns and villages because Big, Rich and Powerful Nations have bought and hoarded it up. I read this week that their chances are one person out of every ten EVER being vaccinated.

This weekend we light our third candle, Gaudete Sunday, “Rejoice”. This is indicated by the third candle being different in colour.

*“ Rejoice in the Lord always, again I say rejoice.
Let your forbearance be known to all, for the Lord is near at hand, so have no anxiety over anything.”*

Advent is that time of waiting, waiting in anticipation for the Lord’s Coming. Expectation for something that will change the whole of humanity.

A great spiritual writer of the 20th Century, Henri Nouwen, wrote of the difference between Joy and Happiness.

“While ‘Happiness’ is dependent on external conditions, ‘Joy’ is the experience of knowing that you are unconditionally loved and that nothing -- sickness, emotional distress, oppression, war, or even death can take that away. Thus ‘Joy’ can be present even in the midst of sadness”

So, as that Man of Joy, Pope Francis said of Gaudete Sunday ----

“ Today is Joy Sunday”

So let us with a joyful and thankful heart rejoice for the great breakthroughs in medical science and for knowing the Joy of being part of humanity as we wait in expectation for the end to this difficult time and as Christians waiting for Our Saviour to arrive.

This Sunday two more of our children will make their First Holy Communion. Their journey has brought them to meet the Lord , an encounter with Jesus, the Bread of Life. I pray that this will not be their First and Last Encounter, but a step on the Journey towards that Holy Mountain, a moment of jubilation on the mount of ecstasy.

Three dead bodies turn up at the mortuary, all with very big smiles on their faces. The coroner calls in the police to tell them what has happened.

‘ First body: Frenchman, 60, died of heart failure while drinking vintage champagne and eating foie gras. Hence the enormous smile, Inspector’ says the coroner.

‘Second body: Scotsman, 25, won £1000 on the lottery, spent it all on whiskey. Died of alcohol poisoning, hence the smile.’

The Inspector asks ‘ What of the third body?’ ‘ Ah’ said the coroner ‘This is the most unusual one. Big Seamus Quinn from Donegal, 30, struck by lightning.’ ‘Why is he smiling then?’ enquires the Inspector.

‘ He thought he was having his photo taken.’

LIFE’S LIKE THAT!

A tour bus driver is driving with a bus load of OAP’s when he is tapped on the shoulder by a little old lady. She offers him a handful of peanuts, which he gratefully munches up. After about fifteen minutes she taps him on his shoulder again and she hands him another handful of peanuts. When she is about to hand him another batch he asks her,

“ Why don’t you eat the peanuts yourself? “

“ We can’t chew them because we’ve no teeth” she replies “ We just love the chocolate around them.”
