

The 14th Station
Jesus is placed in the tomb.

We adore you O Christ and we praise you, Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

‘He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits on the right hand of God the almighty Father... continually interceding on our behalf.

The grave is only a passing resting place.. for us as for Christ.

The life, death , resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ is the promise for us of eternal life.

We are one body with Christ— we are no longer alone in our pursuit for God.... we go with Christ..... we go as other Christs.

We share each other’s blessings and burdens— forgetful of self..... filled with the same hope..... filled with the same faith..... united in the same love for each other and for God.

I pray that in my life I may mirror Christ— that I may truly die to sin..... that I may make my daily round my daily prayer..... that by my love I may lead others to Christ
..... that in my God-given vocation I may be all things to all people.

I know that my Redeemer lives, and that through him, with him and in him all of us shall find life.

I love you, Jesus, my love above all things; I repent with my whole heart for having offended you. Never permit me to separate myself from you again.
Grant that I may love you always; and then do with me what you will.
