WEEKLY MESSAGE

Today's Gospel is very familiar to us. It is the parable of the man who had two sons. The father told his first son to do the work that was needed in the vineyard. The first son absolutely refused to do as his father requested.

We can easily imagine the father's reaction: he was not pleased with this son's refusal! Later, however, the son changed his mind and did go to work in the fields. What was it that caused him to change his mind? We simply don't know.

The father then went to his younger son and asked him to work in the vineyard. The younger son told his father that he would go and work in the fields.

However, the younger son did not follow through. After his father left him, he changed his mind and decided not to work in the vineyard. Who knows what he did instead! Did he feel guilty for not doing what he said he would do?

We too may at some time, have been in the position of both sons. At times we may feel that God is asking us to enter into a task or situation that we truly do not want to deal with. Initially we also may refuse or at least hesitate to say yes. Hopefully with time and grace we may come to a place of acceptance and say yes to what God seems to be asking of us.

It may take us some time to get to that place of acceptance but God promises to give us the strength to do what He asks. We all have God within. May we pray for the grace to trust Him in these moments! He will not disappoint!

A woman applying for a job in a lemon grove seemed over qualified.

The foreman said to her " have you had any actual experience in picking lemons?"

" As a matter of fact I have " she answered " I've been divorced three times."
