PRAYERS FOR THE SICK, ANNIVERSARIES AND THOSE WHO HAVE RECENTLY DIED:

We pray for those in our families or in our Parish Community who may be sick, housebound, worried or in need. We ask that the love of the Lord be with them during the coming week. To all our parishioners who are indisposed we ask that they may receive every grace and blessing.

We also pray for David Hasson, Martin Gillespie, Violet O'Leary, Katina Micallef, Albert Flynn, James Leonard, Monique Farrah-Madden, John Roberts, Frederick Cottrell, Kevin Sullivan, Caroline Rowley, Beatrice McVay, Brian Amor, Julia McNeil, Eileen Bridge, Lily Chick, Brian Darling, Joan Wallis, Trevor Stevens, Frederick Tannetta, George Mannings, John Downey, Jeffrey Plevey, Margaret Slaughan, Flurance Michael Rogers, Evelyn Setchfield Victor Donovan and all those whose anniversaries occur at this time.

Do not forget to pray for all those who have died and for their families particularly those who have no-one to remember them.

CANDLES You will have an opportunity to buy a 7 day candle which will be left either at the Sacred Heart and Our Lady's Altar for the duration of a week. The charge will be £5.

This week's candles will be lit for Maria and Paul Taylor who were married in St Patricks on 25th June 2021

Please put your requests through the Presbytery door in an envelope with 'CANDLE' written on the outside.

GOING INTO HOSPITAL? Please let Canon Mike know as he will be pleased to celebrate the Sacrament of the Sick and/or any pastoral support you need, as the team of priests who currently provide 24/7 cover are under a great deal of pressure and therefore no guarantee that a priest will always be available at any particular time. If you know any Catholic already in Hospital who needs a visit or sacramental support please leave details with the Cardiff & Vale Hospital Chaplaincy 029 20743230

PRAYERS: It is our duty to pray for each other, for those who are sick and those who care for them. But I also ask your prayers for the Chaplains who sit with those who will die, then with the families and then to stand at the graveside bringing the Peace of Jesus, to these broken families. I remember my good friend at Llandough, Peter Davies RC Chaplain, and Dave Pritchard at the Heath.

MESSAGE FROM CANON MIKE

For a number of years Joe Boardman, Bob Reardon, the late and respected John Meredith and I would head to Rome at the start of each New Year. This 'Cultural Tour' has many happy memories of the visits we made to this historical City's bars and restaurants --- yes, we also paid the odd visit to a Church and museums.

The banter was always the same when we reached the Airport at Bristol. Our luggage was placed in the hold of the aircraft thus allowing us to travel with large suitcases. Around the handle of my case I tie a yellow sock, for easy identification at the baggage reclaim. I can hear them laughing at my yellow sock, but it did the trick. How many other people have a yellow sock attached to their case?

All the trips I've made to Ireland or the Continent, I've never unpacked my case. It was placed in the room and whatever was needed I removed there and then. I can hear my mother " You lazy, messy man!"

Are you like me, that we overpack our cases? When I return home after my few days away, I always find a number of shirts and trousers untouched. I find it difficult to 'travel light'.

Jesus this week tells the Twelve to take as little as possible on their journey when they preach the Gospel.

" He instructed them to take nothing for the journey, except a staff; no bread, no haversack, no coppers for purses and no spare tunic....." Rely on Providence.

As a priest coming up to 40 years of Ministry, I'm finding that I've accumulated too many belongings, things I don't need, things that hinder me from moving on, and carrying out the Lord's Command

" Go to the whole World and proclaim the Gospel of the Good News"

I've now reached a stage in my life that I need to get rid of many of my belongings, objects that I've accumulated over the years. So little is needed when we follow Christ and yet vast numbers of people in the world don't have the basics to keep themselves or their families alive. We have too much..... they have too little!

The yellow sock is still on the case and the case is waiting to be filled ready for the next trip when it's safe to travel once more and I will continue to preach the Gospel of Hope and Joy for the words of Jesus echo in my mind and heart

"Michael, set off now and preach the Good News"

O'Malley retired from the British Army and got a job as an orderly in Brixton Prison Hospital.

On his first day he met up with an old school pal from Kilkenny.

"Mick" said his classmate, " I want you to keep a severe eye on the feller in bed number three."

"Why's that?" said O'Malley

"Well," said his chum " he's been here a month. Already he's had his tonsils removed, his adenoids removed, and his appendix removed.

I'm beginning to suspect he's smuggling himself out bit by bit.!"

LIFE'S LIKE THAT!

Behind every woman stands a man
wondering what he said wrong

A workman was repairing the roof of the Liverpool Cathedral.

Into the chapel below came the widow Cassidy bearing the world's troubles on her shoulders.

Kneeling down she poured out her hear at a great level of decibels.

"Mother of God, help me!" she cried

"Mother of God, help me!"

Unable to contain himself, the roofer called down in a booming voice:

" What do you want?"

" Don't be so nosy!" shouted the widow

"It's your Mother I'm talking to !"
