WEEKLY MESSAGE FROM CANON MIKE

This coming week the Catholic Church remembers two foundation stones of the early church, Peter and Paul. Both in their own way helped in forming and giving direction to the newly group of followers who came and stayed together believing in the message of Christ. Each of these men was entrusted in handing on the Gospel of Good News. No body knows what each one looked like, that's not important. Why should we be worried about the colour of their skin or if they had a beard or were clean shaven. What we must learn from these two is to learn how to listen to the "News of Great Joy"

Both Peter and Paul were called at different stages on their life's journey. Each came from a different strata of society: one a manual worker, working all hours to put food on the table for his family, pulling in the nets after a nights fishing, the other one, Paul, articulate and persuasive in his arguments, a civil servant who worked for the Romans and who had such a dislike for the followers of Jesus that he started to chase and put them to death. Yet it's these two men we celebrate this day.

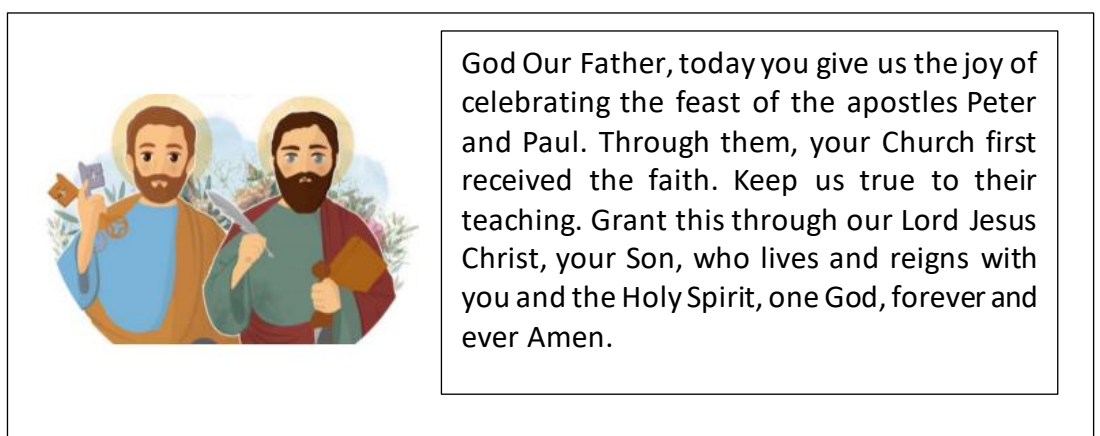

It was that encounter with Christ that changed the direction of their lives. For Peter it was the "Call" at the lakeside to "Come and follow Me". Paul was heading to Damascus with vengeance in his heart to destroy the early Church but a blinding light and a voice challenged him to take a different direction and to journey towards the Light of Hope, Peace and Love that changed both him and future generations.

Their journey is our journey. Their conversion is our conversion. They trusted Jesus completely even unto death. Christ is not asking us to die for the sake of the Gospel but to have the courage of Peter and Paul and change the direction of our lives.

Encounter the Blinding Light on your Journey of Faith, listen to the call "Come and Follow Me".

Whoever you are, wherever you live, rich or poor, the invitation is for YOU.

"HERE I AM LORD I'VE COME TO DO YOUR WILL"

God Our Father, today you give us the joy of celebrating the feast of the apostles Peter and Paul. Through them, your Church first received the faith. Keep us true to their teaching. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever Amen.
